Investment options

- Investors either choose a standard strategy or put together an individual strategy.
- Investors can choose their investment strategy individually and within the legal requirements. There are nine investment strategies available with a shareholding of between 15 and 97 percent.
- All investment products are selected by VZ experts independently of their personal interests.
- The assets are invested in low-cost index funds and individual securities.
- Alternatively, the pension assets can be saved in a pillar 3a pension account without securities.

Advantages

- Cost savings: Thanks to low-cost ETF investments, the pillar 3a is up to 60 percent cheaper at VZ than at other providers.
- Tax benefits: The tax savings for gainfully employed persons with a pension fund amount to up to CHF 3,000 if the maximum amount is paid in.
- Flexibility: Investors select their investment strategy themselves. All ETFs can be transferred to the private securities custody account upon retirement.
- Overview: Online access gives investors an overview of their investments, their performance and other key data at any time.
- Independence: VZ Pension Foundation 3a does not have any investment products of its own. Regardless of the provider, the products that will bring the greatest benefit to the client are selected.

Costs & fees

- The annual management fees of 0.68 percent include transaction fees, subscription fees, redemption fees and custody fees.
- The investment of new funds and the return to the original investment strategy, also known as rebalancing, are free of charge.
- Investors can modify their investment strategy at any time.
